ShoutOut Workshops Tackle Homophobia and Transphobia through Anti-Bullying Sessions

ShoutOut Workshops are available to all post-primary schools in Northern Ireland, through Cara-Friend LGBT Youth. They aim to improve the experiences of young LGBTQ+ people in all our schools by raising awareness among their peers of what it means to be LGBTQ+.

In a recent Northern Ireland survey, 68% of LGBTQ+ young people reported that they were bullied because of their sexual orientation and/or gender identity. We want to change that by tackling prejudice and negative attitudes, as well as challenging homophobic language in schools.

Workshops are available for free and to all age groups in all areas. We want to hear from you so get in touch with Cara-Friend to book a workshop for your young people today.

If you would like to know more or would like to book a workshop, please contact Declan Meehan on declan.meehan@cara-friend.org.uk or call (028) 9089 0202.
